Regional Documentary Film Festival

The Trenton Film Society presents our Regional Documentary Film Festival on Friday, May 1, and Saturday, May 2, at the Mill Hill Playhouse in Trenton, NJ. Screenings are scheduled at 6:30 on Friday and noon, 3PM, and 6PM on Saturday, followed by a reception and awards ceremony. It is a great opportunity to see locally made documentaries from shorts to features, on issues with local impact from addiction treatment to inclusiveness, skateboarding to softball, bilingualism to business survival, and lots of joyful noise, including “Listen Up—Trenton Makes Music.” Several filmmakers (and maybe some musicians) will be available for Q&A after the showings. You can purchase tickets at the Trenton Film Society website, <http://trentonfilmsociety.org/>, or at the door. The tickets will cost $7 for a single block of movies, $6 for students, and $14 for an all-access pass to four shows, $12 for students.
